Happiness is Living,
FIRE

Growing, Learning . . .

What does this building mean to us?
Perhaps it is a museum where we sit motionless and thoughtless
Like ancient relics.
Perhaps it is a recreation center where sports events,
Dances, and plays are held.
Perhaps it is a place of psychological research, where our Remarks are recorded for analysis.
Perhaps it is a computer, where each of us represents
A number on a perforated card.
Perhaps it is an institution of learning, where we gain
Insight and experience as well as knowledge.
Perhaps it is all these and even more:
The light filters through its windows to the inside.
From the inside its students collect particles of enlightenment.
For four years we traveled to and from this edifice;
We mocked it, scorned it, and belittled it;
Yet we honored it and felt proud of it.
Now this building can add one more event to its list of accomplishments.
It can tell the story of the formation and growth of the Happiness
Class of 1966.

Providing A Basis For Our Happiness

Mr. Wayne O. Stacy
Principal

Walpole Public Schools
Senior High School
Walpole, Massachusetts

PRINCIPAL
WAYNE O. STACY

THOMAS F. RILEY
ROBERT M. GEIB
ASSISTANT PRINCIPALS

June, 1966

To the Class of '66:

Education is your passport to the future. Modern society demands that its citizens be trained and skilled in every field of endeavor. As high school graduates, you have taken a significant step towards equipping yourselves for vocations that lie ahead.

But as you leave Walpole High School, I hope you will take with you more than mere academic knowledge. It has been our aim to help you develop sound physical health and strong character as well as alert minds.

Congratulations on a successful four years.

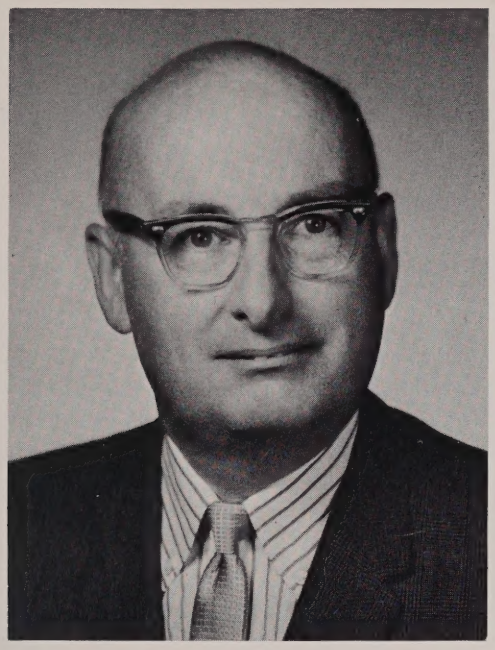
ADMINISTRATION

Everyone must follow the laws set by the school. Many of them have been criticized because they did not make us happy, but our administration has designed rules which are basically sound and which help to teach us proper behavior.

WALPOLE SCHOOL COMMITTEE
1st row, L. to R.: Mr. Bassett, Mrs. Kambour, Mr. Norwell, Mrs. Clapp, Mr. Powers. 2nd row: Mr. Hawkins, Mr. Bunker, Mr. Vance, Mr. Murphy, Mr. Driscoll.



Mr. Powers, Superintendent of Schools.

Mr. Geib, going down the "up" stairway?

Mr. Stacy finds something humorous.

Mr. Riley orders a cheese pizza to go.

Mr. Murphy, Miss Sline, and Mr. Ruscitti.

Steering Us To Success And Happiness

You can't reject Jerry Richall!

Maybe you need another insurance school besides Yale.

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT

Each of us has had problems to solve and decisions to make. Many of them have been difficult and have required the work of experts. The members of the Guidance Department have unselfishly given their time to make us as happy as possible now and to keep us on the road to happiness and success in the future.

Aren't you a little too young to get married?

Teaching Us The Joys And Sorrows Of Our Heritage

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

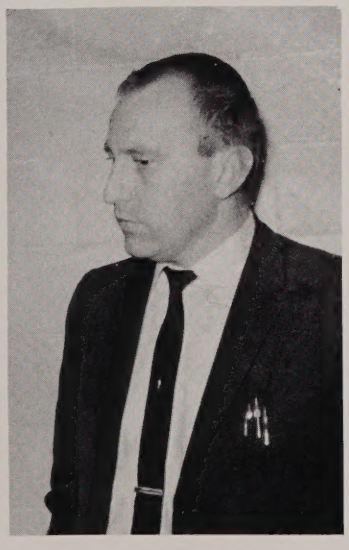
We now face a world outside of our school. We will encounter many problems in our society, and we cannot hope to overcome them without a complete knowledge of the origins of these problems. The Social Studies Department has increased our understanding of our fellow man by its instruction in government, ancient and modern history, and geography.

I outlined the chapter, Miss Darmedy, but I didn't have time to do all of the questions.

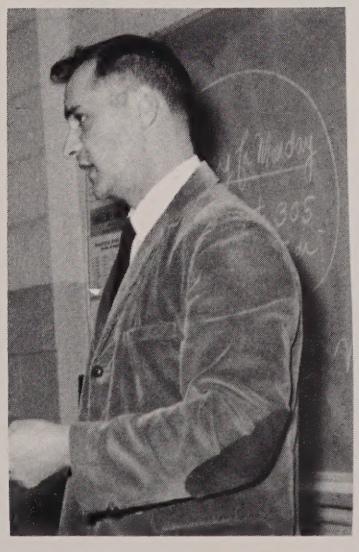
Please, Mr. Sullivan, half credit?

Mr. Arcudi and his "hysterical" society.

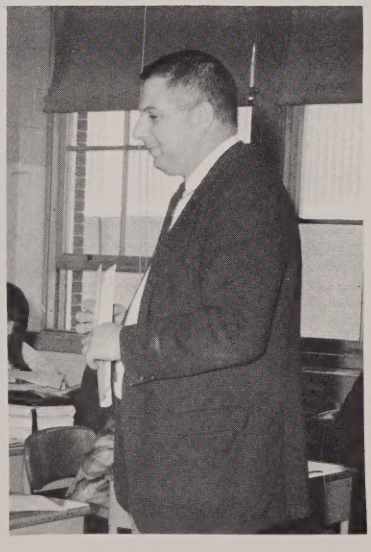
Let's compromise, Mr. Lahnston.



Imagine—he thinks he's getting an A from ME, Mr. Powers....



Well, Mr. Wendler, maybe next year they'll raise your salary.



Next year we'll start football practice in AUGUST.

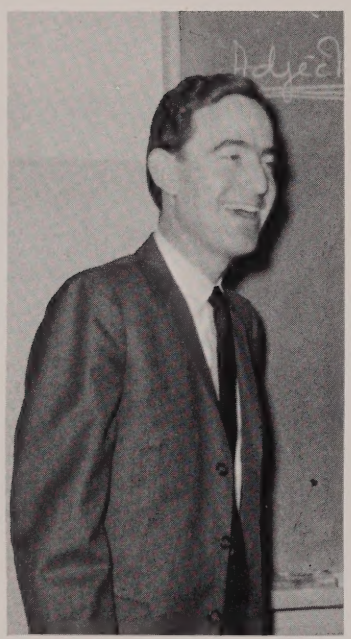
Helping Us To

Mrs. Ryan awaits an overwhelming response.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

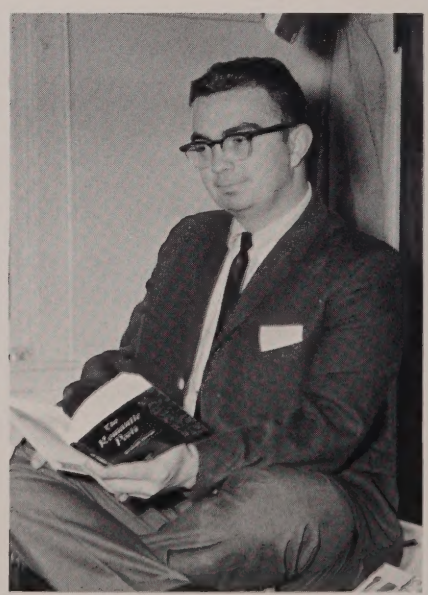
All people rely on written and oral communication. We need competent assistance to teach us how to best express ourselves with our tongues and pens. Our English staff has always been happy to aid us in these pursuits and has thus allowed us to manifest our happiness by sharing it with others.

Mrs. Willey laughs, Miss Flynn grins, and Mrs. Davis stares — must be somethng worthwhile!



Mr. McHugh shows the class another derivative.

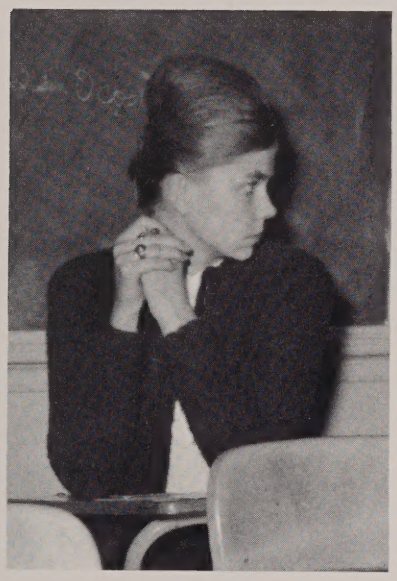
Flunk them now, Mr. Gray, and avoid the June rush.



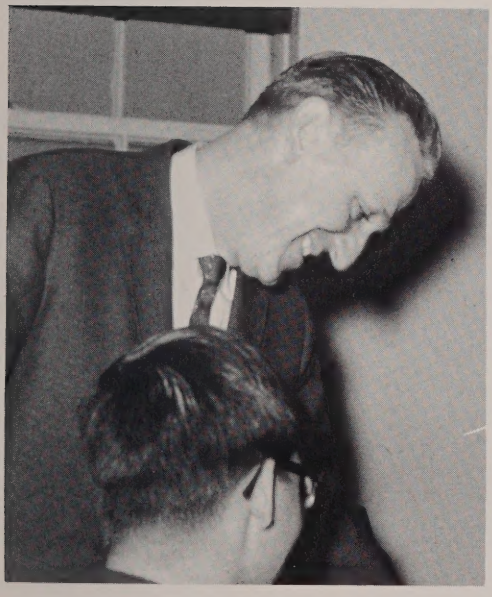
Mr. Losano—always a best man, never a groom.

Express Our Emotions

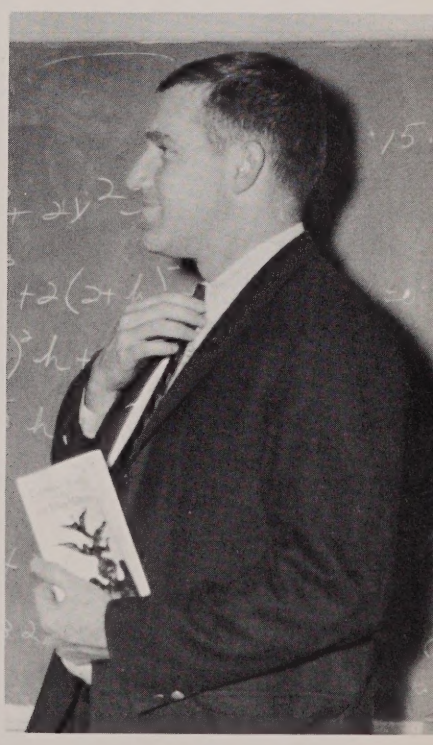
Miss Newcomb digresses.



Who said English is just like German, Mrs. Zitomersky?



Mr. Schnorbus thinks English is pun for everyone.



"Mr. Hull, how was your honeymoon?" "Well, uh . . ."

Mr. Losano psychoanalyzes Miss Miranda.

Guiding Us To The Joy . . .

Of Discovery And Achievement

Mr. Innes, I burned my marshmallow!

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

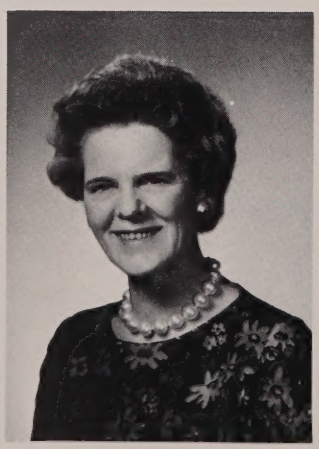
Today's world requires the work of diligent scientists to overcome its many ever-present obstacles. The members of our class may someday be responsible for the longevity of the world, and the Science Department has stimulated the curiosity of students who might eventually discover new ways of making the world a better place in which to live.

Now what, Mr. Brown?

Happiness is Mrs. Bryant's open-book quizzes.

Miss Close calls.

Mr. Brown on the brink of . . . discovery?



Miss Hale reigns.

Mr. Cinto considers.

Mr. Conkey, now reely. . .

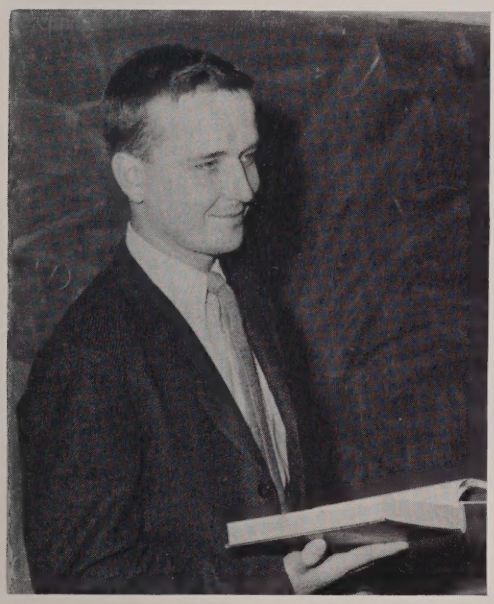
Drawing Us To Our Goal Through Logical Reasoning

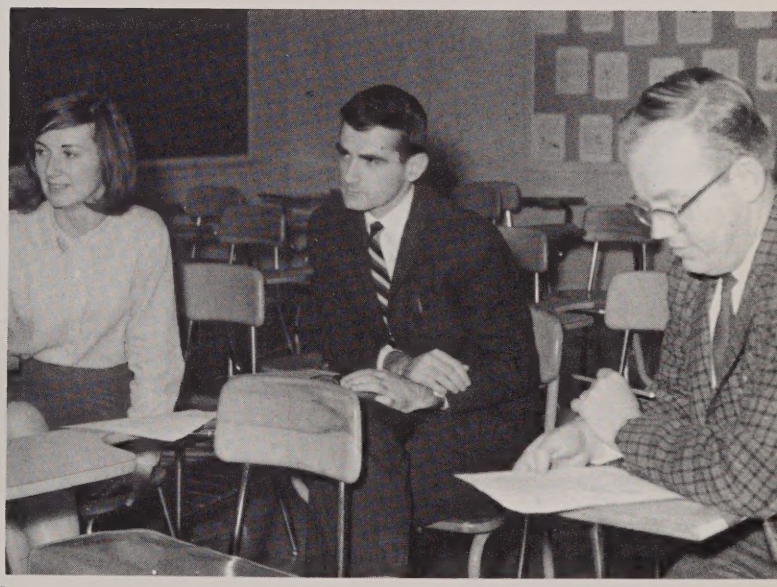
MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

Mathematics is applied to the daily lives of all individuals. We must pinpoint those branches of study which will benefit us personally; and the Mathematics Department has made a large number of courses available to us with the intention that we would pursue those which apply most specifically to our own individual routes to happiness.

Miss Sline checks the answers.



Mr. Sveden with a 33° smile.



Mrs. Thompson, Mr. Cousins, and Mr. Quinn compare problems.

Mrs. Prendergast and Miss Radzwill pinpointing the answer.

Mr. Foley's modern math methods?

Providing Us Skills For Success In Business

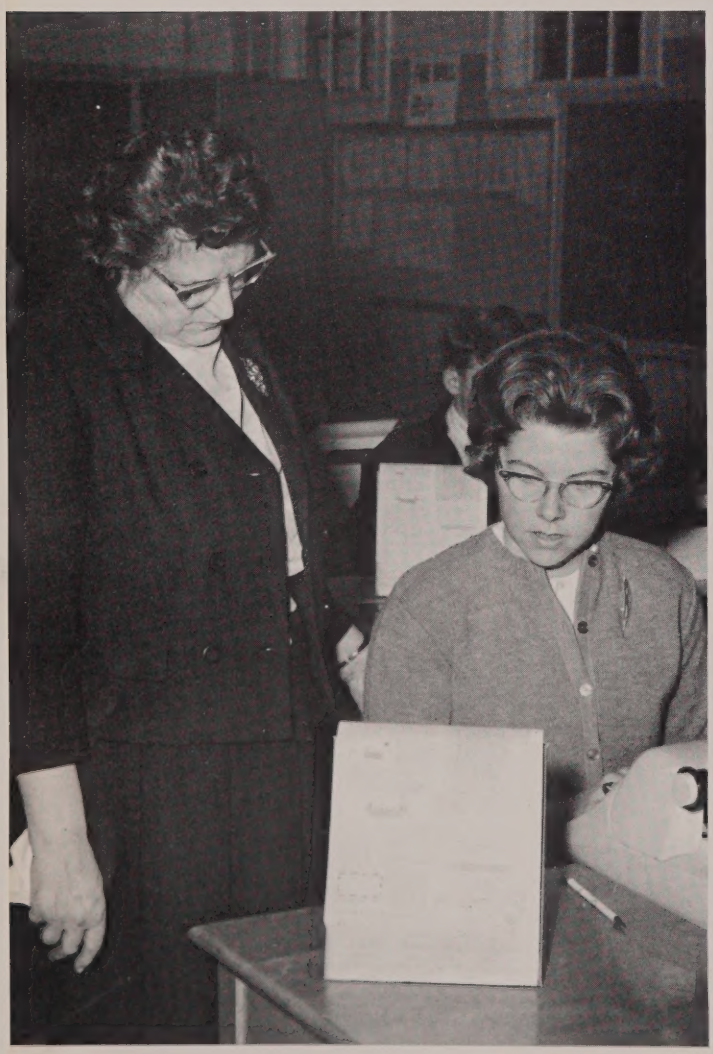
BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Every American is associated with business in one way or another. Our country needs efficient businessmen to carry on its economic affairs.

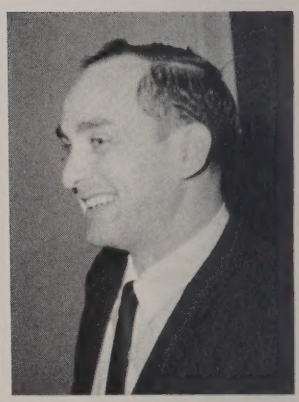
The Business Department has presented to us the aspects of commerce and has led us to the hope of eventually attaining prosperity.

Mr. Valaitis, have you heard the latest elephant joke?

Mrs. Kelliher plans tomorrow's assignments.



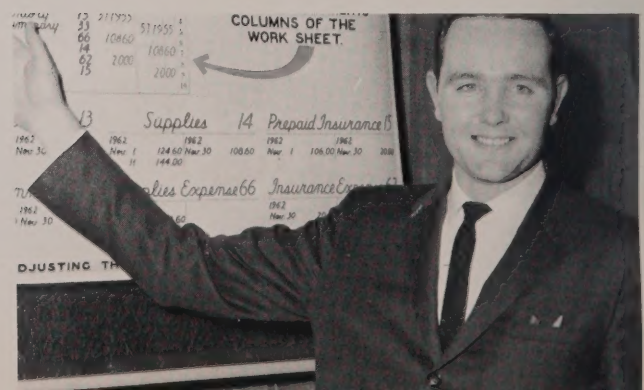
Miss Howe tells Linda what Mr. Valaitis said.

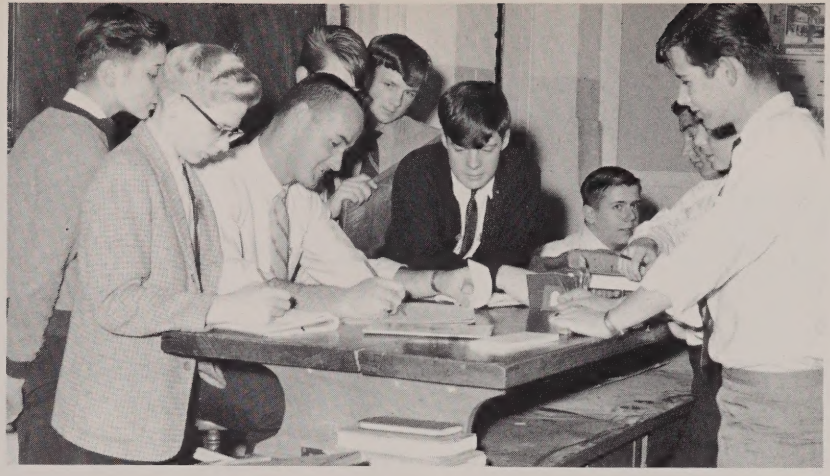


Mr. Messina: "Of course I'm not going to flunk everybody!"

Miss Ciccarelli says she's too nice to flunk them, but too honest to give all of them A's.

Mr. Barnes knows a guy...





What happened to all the girls, Mr. Walsh?

Remember me in your will, Mrs. White.

Mr. Page tries not to get "board".

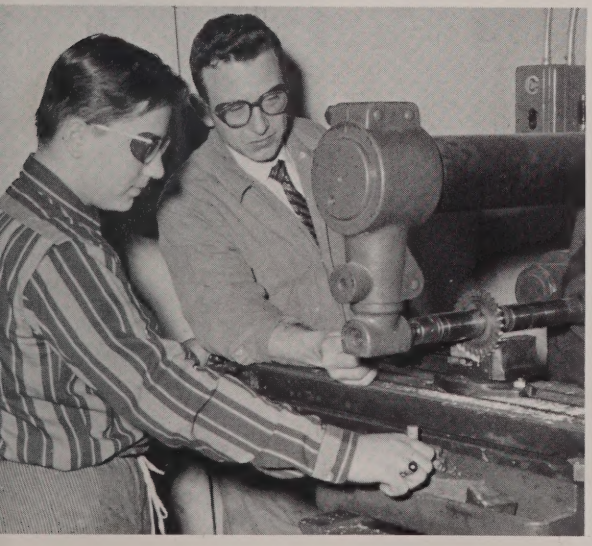
PRACTICAL ARTS DEPARTMENT

Regardless of the vocations we choose to follow, we must all live compatible lives at home. We students of today will set an example for those of tomorrow. The members of the Practical Arts Department have devoted their time and energy to making our everyday lives richer and more productive.

Mr. Conaty points out an error.

. . . And Practical Needs

Mr. Bachman, you left your finger in there!



Mrs. White posts her "Dear Hearts."

Bringing Us Closer To . . .

The People Of The World

FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

In our world of rapid communications, it is essential to know and understand our neighbors. Our expressions must extend to people of foreign tongues as well as to those who speak English. The Foreign Language Department has brought the world closer to us and has provided us with the happiness of sharing many experiences with our friends from abroad.

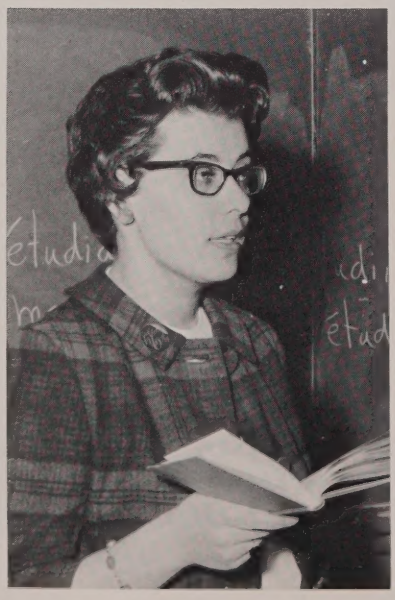
Not in my hand, Miss Connolly!

Does all the enthusiasm overwhelm you, Mrs. Stephens?

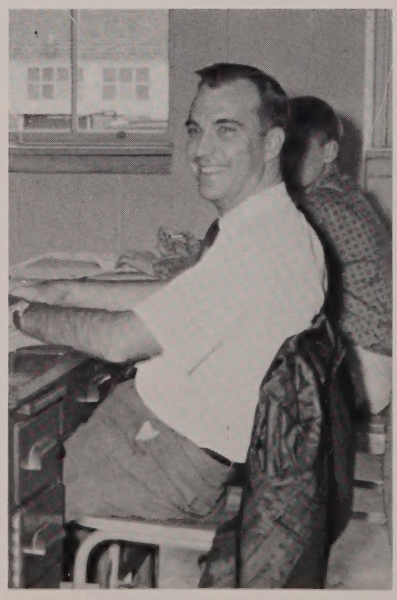
What could possibly be funny in Miss Miller's class?

Who says German is just like English, Mrs. Zitomersky?

Miss Cole says, "Fermez vos livres et vos cahiers!"



Mr. Paglari voted against the dress code.



Miss Wall sings — in French, of course.

Learning To Enjoy The Competition Of Sports

PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

It is important to keep physically fit in order to be happy and healthy. We have depended on excellent coaching by competent instructors to accomplish this throughout our high school career.

Our Physical Education Department has instilled in us good sportsmanship which leads to excellent character.

Our favorite storyteller, Mr. Burke, with his colleague, Mr. Phinney.

Are you sure you don't need glasses?

Mrs. Tsialis and Miss Condon, smiling Purdy.

I didn't do it—really I didn't!

Of course I don't believe in UFO's.

Mr. Edwards reads, How to Drive to Peyton Place.

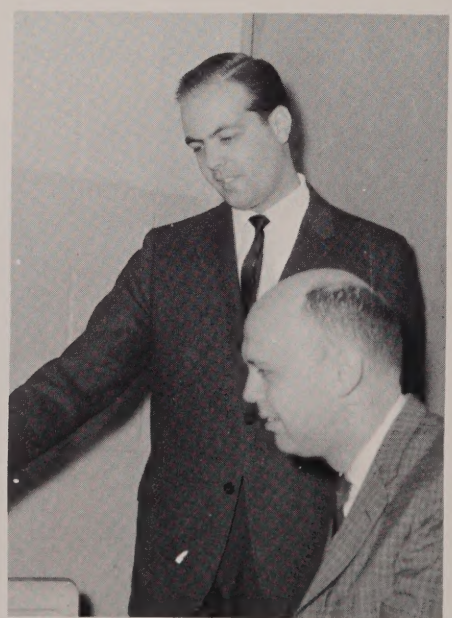
Mrs. Heaps shows the girls a pile of information.

Furthering Our Progress Through Specialization

SPECIAL DEPARTMENTS

Besides the common academic pursuits, we also have various other interests and needs. Those needs require special attention, and our Special Departments have worked with us to make the most of our individual talents and to assure us of happy, well-rounded curriculums.

Ants, Mr. Cairns?



Mr. Collins and Mr. Davis sing, "Mi flat."

Mr. Lind is on the winning side!

Now, show us where the tape is, Mr. Lazzeri.

Aiding Us In Maintaining Good Will . . .

Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Cecchi, and Mrs. Keyes

Mrs. Brigham arranges Mr. Riley's papers.

Throughout the School

NON-TEACHING PERSONNEL

The people who are behind the scenes often do the most work. We are greatly indebted to our non-teaching personnel, which has helped make our years at Walpole High School a little bit more pleasant and memorable for us.

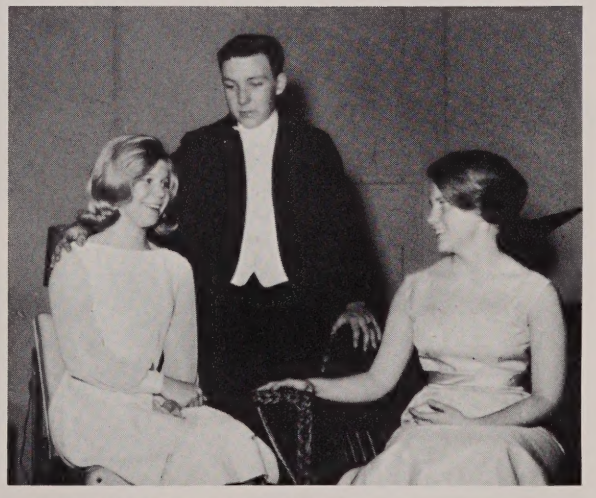
"Good-Bye My Fancy"

On December 9 and 10, 1965, the class of '66 proudly presented "Good-Bye My Fancy," a comedy in three acts by Fay Kanin. Under the direction of Mrs. Willey and Mr. Losano, senior personalities portrayed the story of a young female senator's return from The Capitol to receive an honorary degree at the college from which she had been formerly expelled. Acclaimed by all who saw it as one of the most outstanding presentations ever performed at Walpole High, "Good-Bye My Fancy" proved that a mixture of sentimentality, romance, and comedy can be a surefire success.



A thorn between two roses.

Heartbreak

The frustrating results of this year's playing mirrored that of former years; but in spite of the heart-breaks of an almost winless season, the members of the squad fought 100% all the way. The incessant drive and the desire to win finally overpowered Norwood, and the team toppled its arch rival 26-6 in the most exciting and rewarding game of the season.

CROSS COUNTRY

This year the Walpole harriers finished with an impressive record of four wins and five losses thanks to the firm guidance of Coach Valaitis and a strong backbone of senior runners. All indications point to an equally successful season next year because many underclassmen are on the squad.

FIELD HOCKEY

The girls' field hockey team had another fine season. The defense allowed only one goal which indicated a genuine team effort. In addition, the offense scored twenty seven goals. Spurred on by these fine records, the team compiled a record of 6-1-1 and took second place in the league.

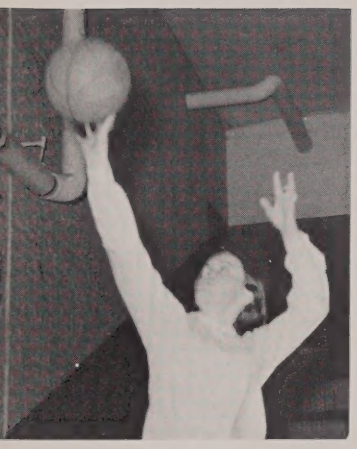
GIRLS' BASKETBALL



What's up there besides the basketball, Pat?

1st row, l. to r.: J. Olson, N. Nethercote, K. Hermistone, J. Lyons, L. Joseph, C. Holman, D. Harrison. 2nd row: A. Loring, J. Calf, B. Tarbell, M. Goodwin, S. Clarke, P. McDonald, K. Murphy, B. Jankowski, M. Groden. 3rd row: J. Lambine, M. Wallace, E. Holman, J. Baranowski, G. Pagnini, E. Lindblom, J. Fisher, P. Riley, Miss Condon.

This year our team of girls showed a vast improvement on the court. They had the desire to win the championship, and they really hustled. However, they lacked the height that their competitors possessed, so they were not always able to come out on top. The credit for most of the scoring on the Walpole team can be given to the two fine captains, Debbie Harrison and Betty Jankowski.

VARSITY HOCKEY

As the hockey season came to a close, Walpole fans were proud to see that the team had ranked high in the league standings. Although everyone was disappointed after the Needham games, we all admired the vigor and ceaseless efforts of the boys. They are traditionally a good team and this year was no exception. We look forward to more good seasons with the present underclassmen and the fine coaches.

Guess who lost?

The wrestling team, in its second year, showed great improvement and potential. The team had many disappointments, but they were all obliterated by a fine win over arch-rival Norwood. Next year should be very promising as ten of the eleven starters will return to the squad.

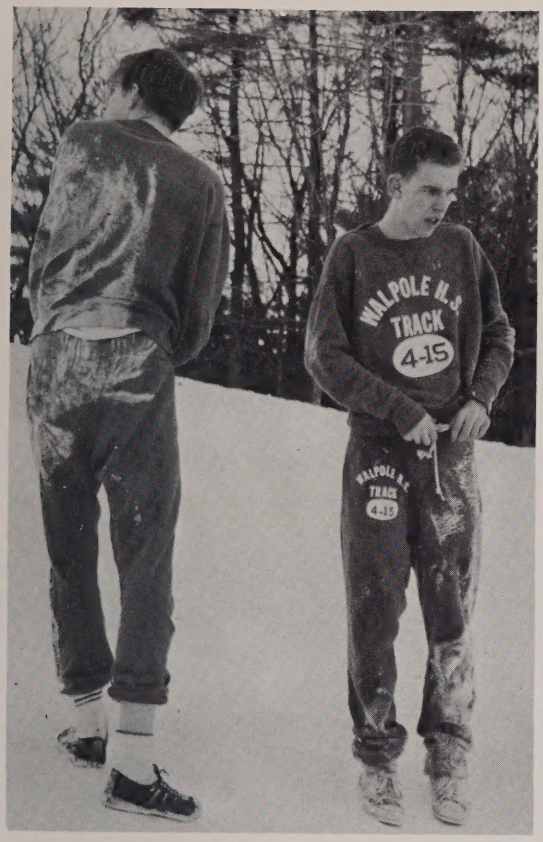
WINTER TRACK

The 1965-1966 season marked Walpole's second year of winter track. Spurred on by Coach Raymond Valaitis, the boys often braved the bitter cold to run through their daily exercises. Because this young squad looks forward to future years with spirit and determination, it is bound eventually to emerge as a powerful addition to the athletic program.



Track? He should have been a wrestler!

Rugged determination and initiative marked the '66 tennis team. With a strong backbone of underclassmen to see this sport through the years ahead, Coach Wendler can look forward to more successful results during the ensuing springs.

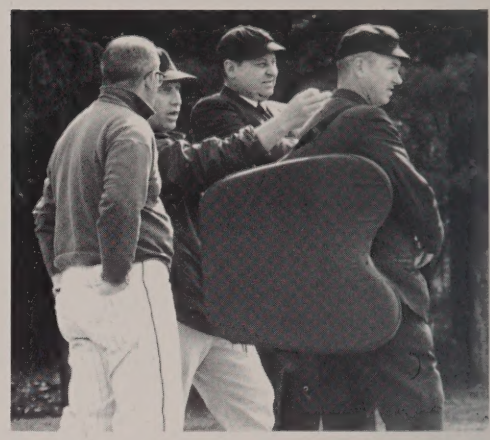
Todd Makes History With

BASEBALL '66

This year, the Hilltop nine had another fine season. Although the team didn't finish at the top of the list, every member continuously displayed hustle, determination, and good sportsmanship. One of the high points of the season was the game against Needham in which a junior, John Todd, shut out the opponent with a no-hitter. John made history by becoming the first Walpole pitcher to throw a no-hit game.

With only a few seniors on the '66 varsity squad, the promise of the return of experienced players makes the outlook for the coming year seem hopeful indeed.



Look at that dandruff!

RAY'S BOYS . . .

Jack be nimble . . .

The Walpole Harriers

Jack jump over the—hurdle?

Ray's boys put forth a fine effort this spring as they ran and jumped for the glory of Walpole High. Although the record was not impressive score-wise, the overwhelming team spirit is sure to help them to the top in years to come.

CHEERLEADERS

D. DiBerto, J. Pagnini, V. Guisti, M. Heino, A. Cunniff, L. Browne, P. Timmins, A. Turco, N. Hudson, B. Rozman.

This is an awfully silly way to avoid seven years bad luck.

CHEERLEADERS

The Walpole spectators thought their eyes were playing tricks on them when they saw ten cheerleaders performing this year instead of the usual eight. Not only had the size of the squad increased, but the members also sported new uniforms of Columbia blue. This splash of animated color sent school spirit soaring. But then, who wouldn't be happy to shout with such an eye-catching group?

How do you expect me to march through there?

L. to r.: J. French, D. Donnell, M. Delsignore, C. Fortnam, J. Wojdag, K. Gillis capt., M. Kelly, N. Crawford, L. Brenton, S. Bendinelli, C. Buck.

BATON SQUAD

No high school would be complete without a baton squad, and we are very proud of ours. It appeared at all the football games and performed at every rally with great skill. Even from a distance, we could always discern a member of the squad with her high-stepping white boots, her deep blue uniform, and that flash of silver baton. One other characteristic was the trail of envious and admiring glances that often followed behind them.

That could only be associated with us.
Happiness is wishing to relive good times,

That a more promising future
Awaits us
Because of the years we spent here.

Words and music by Susan Cole & Eileen Jackson

The Class of 1966 is proud to present for the first time the Walpole High School Song. Composed by Susan Cole and Eileen Jackson, it will remain one of the most enduring contributions we have presented to the school; and we hope this song will become as much of a tradition at the Hilltop as the familiar colors of Columbia Blue and White.

The "Happiness" Class

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Then came September, 1963. The halls which had been so empty after we had left in June once again rang with the sounds of our merry voices.

With Fall; came another election year;
The campaign was heavy and hot.
With our careful selection
The results of election —
Proved the winners the best of the lot.

At the helm was David Blaney. Eileen Jackson was second in command. Writing the minutes was Kathy Gillis, and again jealously guarding the treasury was Charlie Drake. Yes, we were off to a running start, but we stopped short in our tracks that Friday afternoon when the news of President Kennedy's assassination came to us over the public address system. Then, the entire school shared with the rest of the nation, a feeling of great loss.

Then the time rolled around for the Soph.
Class Dance—Our theme—a Hawaiian night.
To pull this one over was quite a task—A
North winds made us feel more like a
Night in Alaska —
But INSIDE we were warm all right!

As far as sports go, '63-'64 was a "building year". To say any less—or any more—would have been unfair to our teams. A bright exception, however, was the girls' field hockey team, which had a great season.

To crown another successful year
Our class trip to Rocky Point.
The tonic was fizzy,
The rides were so dizzy,
That stomachs were all OUT-OF-JOINT!

Walked In In Sixty-two

Frosh officers: Charlie Drake, treas.; Corky Yates, pres.; Dave Blaney, vice-pres. (Missing: Barbara Buckley, sec.)

FROSH YEAR

The "Happiness Class" of sixty-six
Walked in in sixty-two
We knew when we started
That when we'd have parted
We'd have left a mark or two.

We settled down into the swing of things by taking the Magazine Campaign in hand and outselling the upperclassmen.

Our officers were our next concern;
We had to decide on four
And the four we chose
From their heads to their toes
Were the best to be had for the chore.

Those we deemed fittest for the job were Corky Yates, president, David Blaney, vice-president, Barbara Buckley, secretary, and Charlie Drake, treasurer.

And on the field there were none to compare
With the Walpole boys in the blue.
(From first string to third)
They knew the good word
And to our expectations ran true.

To honor the Seniors that Spring, we held our "Bon Voyage Dance." And who could forget the prophecy that a couple of the more acrobatic members of the class strung up from the chimneys: "The Best Is Yet To Come — Class of '66!"

Finding Real Happiness Together In

JUNIOR YEAR

Our Junior year was one new adventure after another. Adventure number one was our new principal.

A new face greeted us Junior year—
Mr. Stacy, smiling from ear to ear.
The smile disappeared when the Navy Band came.
There were protest "riots" — Did he have a hunch,
The next day no one would eat his lunch?

Adventure number two was an election year far more spirited than any previous one. The final vote gave us Teddy Fitzpatrick as president, Paul Marchese as vice-president, Linda Browne as secretary, and you-know-who as treasurer. Adventure number three was our athletic performance. Nearly every team turned out an improved record, but . . .

The spotlight that year was, of course,
on the ice,
And to the delight of the crowd
The boys put up a tremendous fight
And ended up State Champs that night.
All the cheers were wild and loud!

As we breezed along through the rest of the year, the time for April vacation and the Prom was suddenly upon us.

Our Junior Class Dance that winter was held,
But what we'll remember most
Was "From Twilight 'til Dawn"
When we danced at our prom;
The best one ever, we boast.

Our sense of humor never failed us — even on the last day of school.

Our Junior year ended with a laugh,
Or, to be more correct, with the cackles.
We set free the chickens,
Then laughed like the dickens
While the teachers nearly threw us in shackles.

The culmination of the year was our gay little jaunt to Nantasket Beach for the class trip. Ah, those were the days—but the best was yet to come . . .

Junior officers: front—Teddy Fitzpatrick, pres.; Paul Marchese, vice-pres.; back—Charlie Drake, treas.; Linda Browne, sec.

Living, Sharing, Working, Playing.

Senior officers: Kathy Gillis, sec.; Bob Lee, vice-pres.; Richard Drake, treas.; Ted Fitzpatrick, pres.

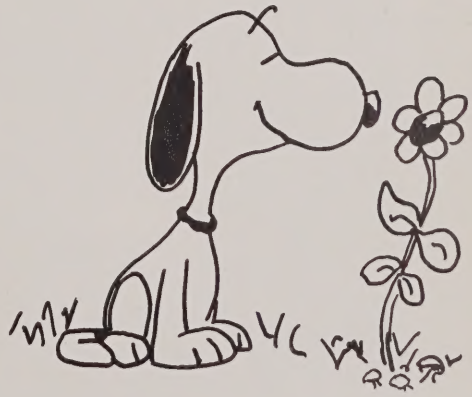
SENIOR YEAR

Finally our senior year rolled around. We had hardly gotten our feet off the ground when, to everyone's surprise, a new dress code was put into effect which required that the boys wear ties to classes.

As we all made ready to begin the end
Everyone was dressed in navy and maroon
And saddle shoes were the talk of the school
(At least they didn't break any rule)
As the dress code went over like a lead balloon.

We chose as our final, fearless leaders—Ted Fitzpatrick, president, Bobby Lee, vice-president, Kathy Gillis, secretary, and Richard Drake, treasurer.

Amidst movies and car washes
(When all needed galoshes)
Our treasury increased.
Then initiations ceased
When Turkey Trot welcomed the Froshes.



The Senior Class Play, "Good-Bye, My Fancy," by Fay Kanin, was a happy success. It proved what we knew all along—that whatever the Class of '66 set out to do would be done the best ever.

Fooball time saw our boys on Columbia Blue
They battled Norwood and won
And again, in hockey, Norwood was fated
By our hustling team to be outskated.
Then cheering for basketball proved great fun.

The Junior Prom, Eve of Enchantment, honoring the seniors, was again held at the Blue Hills Country Club. Warm sentiments compensated for the cool weather.

April vacation offered needed rest
Our school days then were almost done
We'll always remember our great Class Night.
And Ted Hilton's Dude Ranch was fun all right!
Then graduation '66 did come.

As we follow our separate paths in life, we hope there will always be at least some small bond to keep us together—maybe the memory of a football game or a lab experiment—or a particular dance—so that when we meet again in ten or twenty years, we'll say "That was us, the Happiness Class."

HAPPINESS IS . . .

Having Superlative Seniors

You mean you REALLY spent $50 on a necktie wardrobe?!
BEST DRESSED
Anthony Anzlovar and Susan Robinson

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the members of the astonishingly great class of 1966, bequeath to the unfortunates we leave behind, the problems that did not quite graduate with us.

We leave our principal singing: "Happiness is the class of '66—leaving."

To the faculty, we leave the fact that compromises don't solve problems—they only postpone them.

To the Juniors, we leave all the Navy Band assemblies that we just "happened" to miss.

To the Sophomores, we leave as much happiness as they deserve.

To the Freshmen, we leave the end of the rope for another year.

Mary Albee leaves Joyce Amero at the top of the list.

Aurella Allaire leaves her shoes in school and walks out bare-footed.

Francis Alward leaves-leaves as-as Jo-Jo.

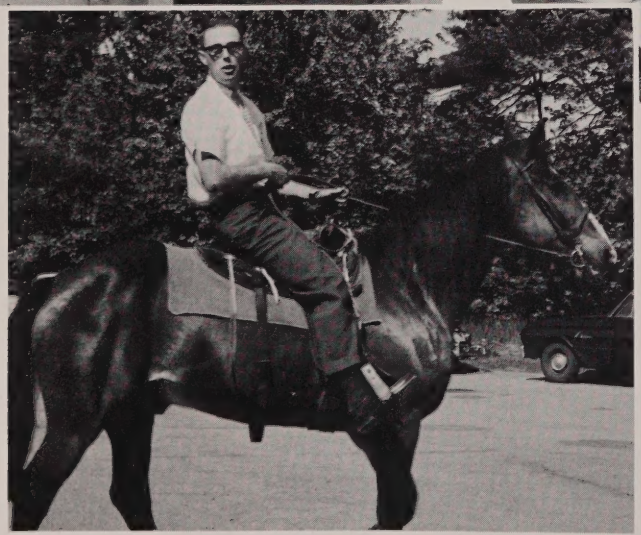
Eileen croons another song.

Smile, your picture's going in the yearbook.



Mr. Page celebrates on the last day of school.

Graduation archbearers.

GRADUATION

Graduation is more than a beautiful commencement,
a successful class outing,
or a warm felicitation.
It is a turning point in life,
and the arch is a gateway to future happiness.

"Happiness Class" Revels . . .

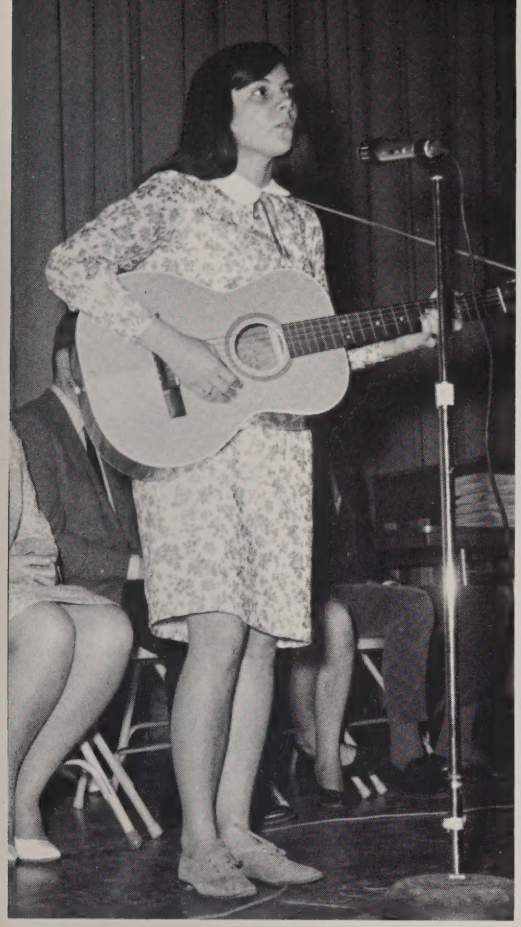
Class President, Ted Fitzpatrick, leads the seniors down the aisle.

People often told us that our high school years would be among the happiest of our lives, but we never believed them until now. As the culmination of our four years drew near, we began to realize that we had unknowingly experienced happiness in spite of tests, term papers, and report cards. And so, on Class night, we admitted it all. We gratefully dedicated our Topper to Mr. Lahnston; we reminisced in the History and Will and projected ourselves into the future in the prophecy; we applauded those members of the class who received awards; and we heartily enjoyed the musical entertainment of our talented friends. Perhaps here on Class Night, more than at any other single event, we were truly proud to call ourselves the "happiness class."

Topper editor, Jackie Deckel, presents yearbook dedication to Mr. Lahnston.

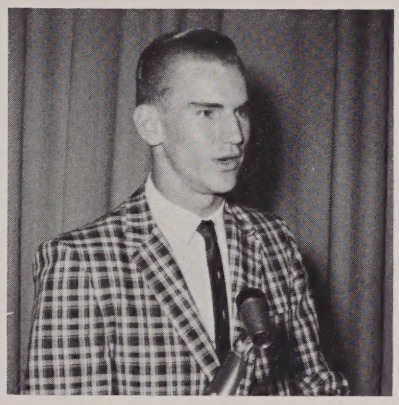
Eileen Jackson and Susan Cole receive awards for writing our new school song.

Mr. Stacy congratulates David Waterman, recipient of the science award.



Joanne Valerio proved to everyone's delighted surprise that she sings as well as she draws.

Jerry Milbury begins the class History.



Debbie Kebler continues with the Sophomore year.

Charlie Drake tells of our experiences as Juniors.

In Class Night Activities

Pam Bartlett receives the Homemaker's trophy and silver set.

Mr. Stacy presents Jackie Deckel with the Footlighters' award.

Sue Hunter concludes with the Senior year.

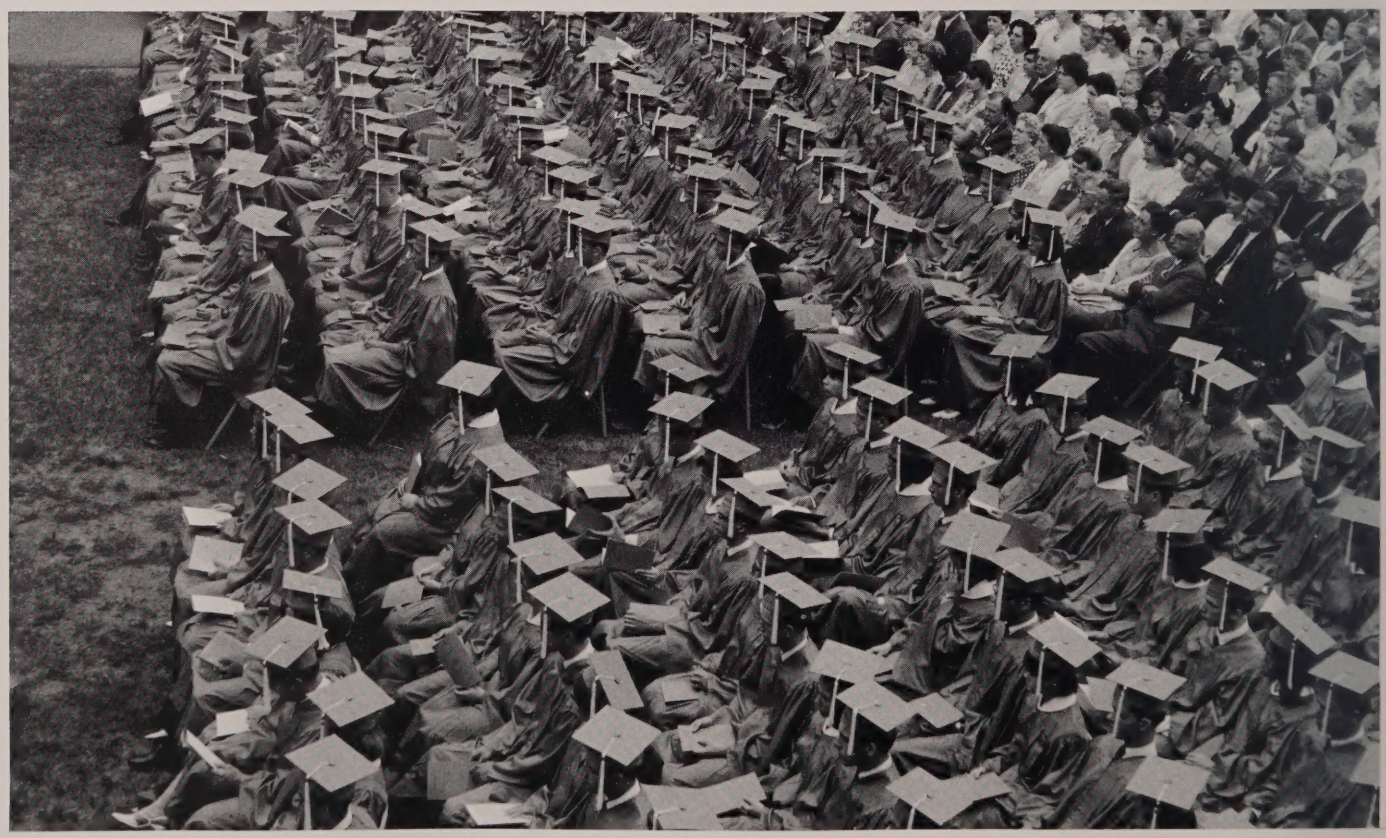
Speaker Jacqueline Deckel develops theme of "Educational Opportunities for American Youth."

We're on the horns of a dilemma here. (It almost rained.)



Almost there.

Graduation '66 was a memorable occasion in spite of threatening weather. Over 200 students received diplomas in the south quadrangle campus area, and more than 1500 parents and friends joined the graduates in celebrating an end and a beginning.

John Todd and Kathy Plasmati, Junior Marshals, lead the graduates through the arches.

School Committee chairman Bruce Norwell awards the diplomas.

It's all over but the shouting.

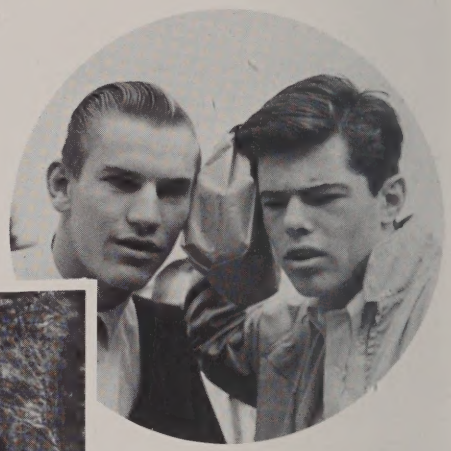
B-Day At Walpole High

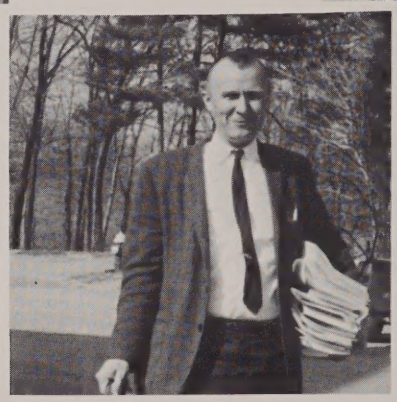
After April vacation came May vacation.The initial reaction to several days off from school was, of course, delight. But when the time came to make up the days we lost by going to classes on Saturdays, everyone began to realize that it is much more preferable to serve out the 180 days within the regular 5-day week.

Here we go again . . . .

Waiting for the blast.



tick, tick, tick . . .



Taking advantage of the situation.

For Devoted Service

We were all very sorry to hear that Miss Dorothy Newcomb planned to retire in 1966. Miss Newcomb has been teaching English in the Walpole school system for 36 years, and she has become a familar sight in the corridors of Walpole High. Many of our relatives, who have been alumni for well over a decade, were once under the supervision of this fine teacher, who has the amazing ability to remember the names of almost every student whom she has ever taught. To you, Miss Newcomb, go our earnest praises and sincere appreciation for all the services you have rendered throughout the years.

Our Miss Newcomb

ADVERTISEMENTS

We, the members of the Class of '66, are proud of the fact that so many friendly industries have contributed to our happiness; and we wish to acknowledge these firms in the following section.

Before you accept that first job . . .

Look over your employer as carefully as he does you

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone Company . . . New England's largest employer.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.

BELL SYSTEM

New England Telephone

Part of the Nationwide Bell System

An equal opportunity employer

This entire page is dedicated to the 1966 graduates of Walpole High by their parents!

As this marks the end of our book, it also marks the end of our high school days!

To You—our beloved sons and daughters we say—Persevere, continue to work hard and may all of God's joys reap bountiful rewards!

Best Wishes to the Class of 1966
